Screening Policies

All applicants are held to a 4-point screening standard and a criminal background screening.

Applicant Screening

- Applicants at Family Properties must pass 3 of the 4 criteria to be considered for tenancy.

The standards are as follows:

1. Leasing Desk Score: The Leasing Desk Score is a feature of Real Page leasing software. Factors that contribute to the Leasing Desk Score are: criminal background, check writing history, credit history and rental history.
 - a. Applicants must achieve a minimum of a 400 Leasing Desk Score. Pass or fail is not the factor in this standard. The minimum score must be 400.
2. Rent to income ratio:
 - a. Applicant must have 2.5 times the rent in income or have a Section 8 voucher. You can determine this by dividing the applicant's monthly income by 2.5. That amount must be equal or greater than the monthly rent.
3. Checking Account
 - a. Applicant must have a checking account with a positive current balance. Only checking accounts qualify for this standard. Savings accounts and Direct Express Cards do not count as meeting this standard.
4. Landlord Reference
 - a. These references will pertain to the payment of rents in a timely manner, to the care taken of the unit occupied, the history of violence, disruptive behavior, or abuse of a controlled substance and could be grounds for rejection. Applicants are required to have 2 years of positive landlord reference. If the applicant has lived with a family member during the prior 2 years, landlord references must be obtained from before that stay to meet this standard.

If an applicant has a previous eviction, the applicant will be rejected regardless of scoring on screening policies. If an applicant owes a previous landlord money, the applicant must show proof that the amount has been paid off.

Any applicant who fails to meet the applicable screening requirements will be given prompt written notification of the grounds for rejection.

Criminal Background

A criminal background check will be completed on all applicants age 18 or older*. Applicants who have been convicted or have a deferred adjudication of the following offenses will be permanently denied from housing:

- Arson
- Kidnapping
- Rape, Sexual Assault, Crimes of a Sexual Nature
- Registered Sex Offender on any State Registration Program
- Capital Murder, Murder, Manslaughter
- Felony Manufacture of Methamphetamines
- 2 or more Felony cases that occurred at different times and that resulted in conviction or deferred adjudication

Applicants who have been convicted of or have a deferred adjudication for the following offenses will be denied from housing now, but may reapply after the below mentioned time frames have expired:

- Felony conviction or deferred adjudication for a Felony offense in the last 10 years
- Misdemeanor conviction or deferred adjudication involving crimes against property, violent crimes against persons or for drug related offenses within the last 5 years.

Crimes related to circumstances protected under Violence Against Women Act may not be considered. For a reasonable accommodation request, please see the Site Manager of the property.

*While all households have been screened prior to tenancy, this does not create a guarantee as to the criminal history of each resident or occupant.

Any applicant who fails to meet the applicable screening requirements or the criminal background criteria will be given prompt written notification of the grounds for rejection. We welcome an interactive dialogue with you regarding any concerns you may have about a rejection of your application due to criminal background screening results.
